Hello All!

I am happy to tell you that when I talked to the embassy today they told me that they would be putting my passport in the mail this afternoon! Yay! Finally! I purchased my tickets this afternoon, so I can officially say I am leaving May 13th. Thank you all so much for your continued prayers and support! The next two weeks will go by fast I am sure. Please pray that all the final details of packing and the many goodbyes go smoothly. Pray a prayer of praise and thanksgiving that God has taken care of all those details ahead of time. Thank you for being faithful to the Kingdom of God!

In His Name,

Emily Hinebauch
