

11/17/10

Hello Missions Team,

It's the season of thanks! Although I enjoy this season of the year so much, it is a reminder of how thankful we should be all year long. Thanksgiving is not just a meal during the fall, but rather a matter of our hearts. And we do indeed have so much to be thankful for.

This coming Sunday, November 21st, we will meet again for the purpose of thanking God for His invitation for us to join Him in His eternal plan! We will be sharing the good news from the field (missionary updates), spending time in prayer (for those we have sent out, and for us as we advance the kingdom here in North Central Montana), and brainstorm how we can engage others around us in this endeavor (get information out to the rest of our church family and get more people involved in either giving, going and praying).

The agenda that I have is included below. Please continue to be in prayer for each of our missionaries, both domestically and internationally. If you have any questions, please let me know.

I look forward to seeing you all as we gather as the missions team.

Missionary Updates
